Programme Director, INSEAD Summer

“

We're looking for young talent with multicultural skills and the initiative to work, to solve problems and to help us grow our business all over the world. Young professionals who have gone through INSEAD's highly prestigious Summer School are prepared and confident in a way that really stands out.

Who will you meet at INSEAD?

The INSEAD Summer School brings together students and undergraduates from all over the world for two immersive weeks, studying and living at our Europe Campus in Fontainebleau, just outside Paris, France. During the programme, participants will have the opportunity to learn from INSEAD's award-winning faculty and join a vibrant global community with a wide variety of backgrounds and cultures.

You'll build an international network of contacts, colleagues and friends around the world, and for life.

What will you learn?

Our curriculum exposes the most critical challenges, solutions, ideas and innovations in global sustainability and purpose-driven management today.

Holistic and expertly curated by INSEAD faculty, this is your fast track to understanding our interconnected world. Get ready to build the mindset, skills and confidence to get the most from work or further studies, wherever they take you.

Curriculum

Lectures with INSEAD faculty

Immerse yourself in key management disciplines such as strategy, entrepreneurship, decision making, negotiation and more. This is not just a classroom experience; it's an opportunity to actively engage with the essence of management through interactive sessions.

Experiential learning

By actively engaging in practical activities, such as group projects, simulations, and hands-on tasks, students deepen their understanding and retention of knowledge. The emphasis on collaboration fosters teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills, providing a valuable foundation for real-world applications and future endeavors.

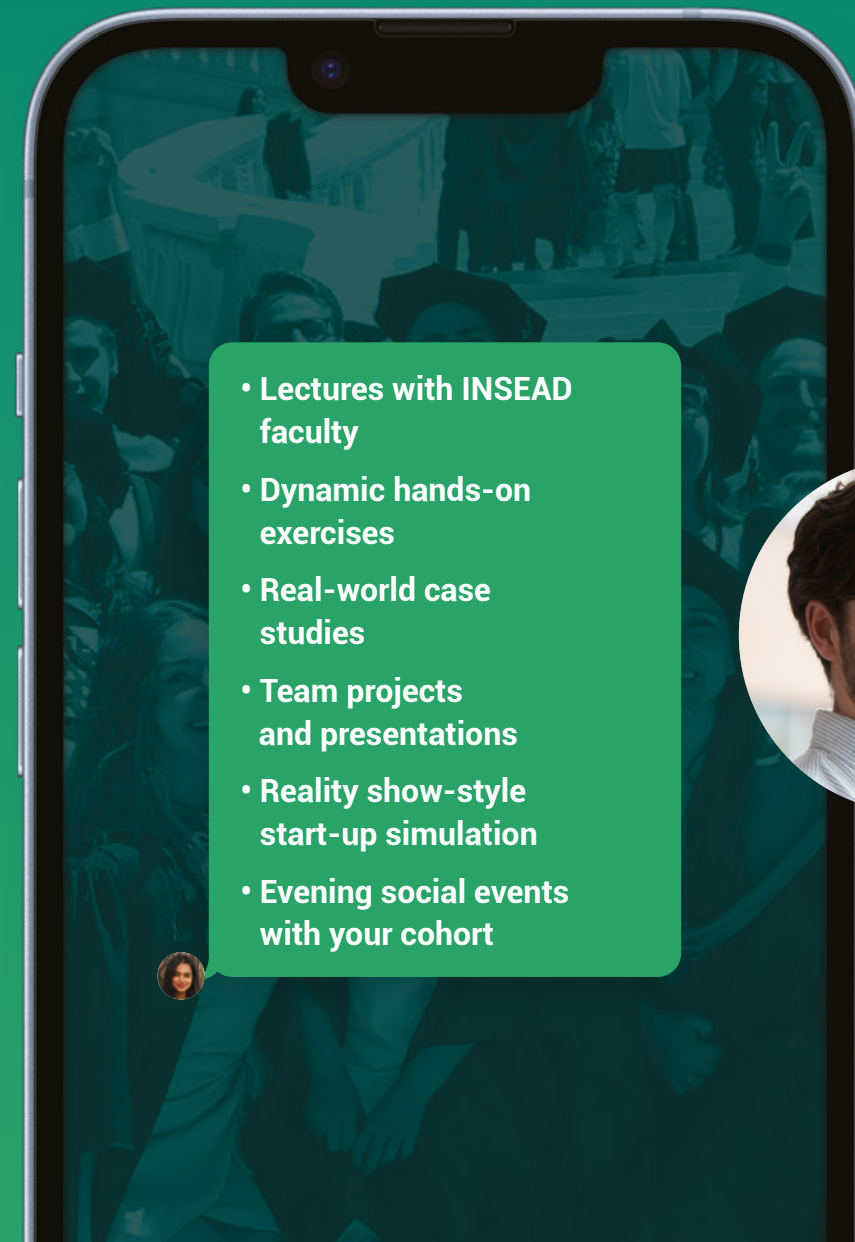

Social events & activities

INSEAD Summer School offers a dynamic blend of social and cultural activities, creating a holistic and memorable summer school experience.

How will you learn?

INSEAD Summer School is an immersive, on-campus, two-week experience that integrates theory, practice, play, social activities and culture. You will work hard and play hard, living, studying, learning, eating and sleeping at INSEAD's renowned Fontainebleau campus, to get the full INSEAD experience.

- Lectures with INSEAD faculty
- Dynamic hands-on exercises
- Real-world case studies
- Team projects and presentations
- Reality show-style start-up simulation
- Evening social events with your cohort

Where will you stay?

During your time with us, you will enjoy the comfort and security of INSEAD's 4-star Hotel Ermitage, located at the heart of our famous Europe Campus in Fontainebleau.

You'll have access to all that INSEAD campus life offers as you meaningfully connect with your new colleagues and friends.

Students enrolled in the INSEAD Summer School enjoy a special rate when they stay at Ermitage Residence.

- The Doriot Library
- Fitness Centre and squash court
- Free bike hire
- Free WiFi
- En-suite rooms
- The Treehouse Bar & Diner catering to all dietary needs
- Views of the Fontainebleau forest
- 24-hour campus security service
